A Scene Of Hope

By Phillip Johnson

And now for one truth...one of the great pictures of hope in the Bible is found in Revelation 7:9-17. God's Revelation to John was important for many reasons. At this time in history, Christians were under duress. They were facing intense persecution. Their faith in God often led to imprisonment, torture and at times even death. These people needed a message of hope. They needed something to help them stay faithful to God through these challenging times. Revelation provided them exactly what they needed. Take a few minutes to read Revelation 7:9-17. As you read focus on how God is described.

What do we learn about God in this text? God is worthy of worship. The multitudes join together in praising God. The angels also worshipped God. God deserves to be worshiped. Worship is not about me. Worship is about God. Worship is the creation offering praise and honor to the creator.

We also see God is Savior. In Paul's letter to Titus, both Jesus and God are described as our Savior. In Titus 1:3; 2:10 & 3:4, Paul describes God as Savior. God has a plan for His creation.

His plan starts with our salvation. Jesus commissioned the apostles to, "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations..." The apostles were to share the message of the gospel with the world. Before Jesus ascends back to heaven He tells these men that they "shall be His witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria and even to the remotest part of the earth." Revelation 7:9 is the result of this preaching.

This text also reveals God as King.

It is God who rightfully sits on the throne. God is King. What does this knowledge mean for us? What implications are there for us knowing God is King? God must be obeyed. God must be served. It should be easy for us to serve God because of what He has done for us. When Jesus came to earth He revealed the Father to us. The more we know about Jesus, the

The more we know about Jesus, the more we will know about God. We know Jesus is King of kings and Lord of lords. Yet while He walked this earth, He lived the life of a servant. Jesus served others. Jesus did the will of others. Jesus gave to others. Jesus was humble. He was still King! He was still Lord. He simply led from the position of a servant. The title "servant" beautifully describes Jesus. This title also describes God. God is King. He sits on His throne. He also is a servant. God served us by sending His Son to this earth!

Finally we see God as a comforter.

Notice the picture in Revelation 7:17. God wants His people to be comforted. This has always been true. In the OT, God sends a message of comfort to the nation of Israel through the prophet Isaiah in Isaiah 40:1. As a result of Judah's rebellion against God, they were taken away into Babylonian captivity. Despite their rebellion, God loved His people. He wanted them to be comforted. His message to His people in captivity centered on comfort. "Comfort, O comfort My people," says your God. Isaiah offered a message of hope to the nation of Israel. In similar fashion, John's Revelation was a message of hope for Christians of his day. They were struggling...but there were better days ahead. They were being persecuted...but there were better days ahead. They were abused and mistreated...but there were better days ahead. If you are in Christ...if you are a Christian...if you know Jesus as Savior, there are better days ahead!

Don't You Judge Me!

By Barry Haynes

I often hear today people exclaim that Christians are too judgmental in regard to moral issues:

"Why can't they just let people do what they want and stay out of others business."

"What gives them the right to tell others what to do!"

While it is true faithful followers of Jesus are not to be busybodies in other affairs, those that think it is unchristian to take a moral stand on issue forget a truth we are told in Proverbs 8:13.

It says, "The fear of the LORD is to hate evil; Pride and arrogance and the evil way. And the perverted mouth, I hate." We should hate evil because God hates evil.

An attitude that thinks "I can do whatever I want, whenever I want", is an arrogant way to approach God. Rather than taking a poll, or having a vote on what people think should be right and wrong, it is much better to examine the word of God to see just what is right and wrong. To stand against evil isn't being judgmental. True evil is when we reject God.
